SHOW CONDITIONS AND REGULATIONS

SHOWGROUND HOLDING NUMBER: 36/225/8000/02

The Showground will be open for the reception of cattle as follows:

Tuesday 9:00 am to 5:00 pm

RESPONSIBILITIES OF EXHIBITORS AND THEIR STOCK ATTENDANTS

1. Exhibitors or their Stock attendants must be competent and take total responsibility of their stock at all times whilst on the Showground. All persons in charge of exhibits will be required to parade or exhibit the animals in their charge at times as directed by the Stewards of the Show. Stock attendants must be in attendance at least a quarter of an hour before the time appointed for exhibiting the animals under their charge in the Show Rings. No Stock attendants shall be allowed to lead more than one animal at a time in the Judging Ring.

Exhibitors will be held responsible for the behaviour of their Stock Attendants and for the consequences of any misconduct. Stock attendants entering the Judging Rings must be dressed to comply with the bio-security regulations.

2. Every exhibit must be the bona fide property of the Exhibitor at the time of entry. In the event of the death of an exhibitor between the date of entry and the date of the Show, the executors of the deceased will be deemed to be the exhibitor. If an animal is sold after the date of entry the change of ownership must be notified to the Entries Office. A substitution fee of £5 + VAT will be made for each such alteration.

An entry made by a partnership cannot be entered in the Exhibitor Bred class unless the animals or groups of animals are owned and bred by the same partnership.

- i) An animal is defined as Exhibitor Bred if the prefix of the animal is that registered to the exhibitor, and the exhibitor was the registered owner/joint owner of the dam at the time of birth and registration.
 - ii) An animal born as a result of embryo transfer is deemed "Exhibitor Bred" if at the time of embryo collection the donor female was in sole or joint ownership of the exhibitor.
3. All exhibits and persons in charge of them will be subject to the Orders, Regulations and Rules of the Show. The Stewards have the power to remove from the Showground the Stock or property belonging to, and to cancel the admission ticket of any exhibitor who infringes any of the Regulations or Conditions of the Show, or who refuses to comply with any instructions given by the Stewards, without any responsibility attaching to them in consequences of such removal.
 4. Except in the case of death or personal injury caused by negligence of the Show, its servants or agents, the Show will not be responsible for death, injury, disease, damage or loss caused to any exhibitor or to his or her servant or agent or to any animal, article, plant, machinery or thing of whatever nature brought onto the Showground.
 5. The Exhibitor shall indemnify the Show against, and take full responsibility for all claims, damages and expenses whatsoever in any way arising out of the presence of the exhibitor, his servants, agents, exhibits, vehicles or equipment on the Showground.
 6. Any infringement of any of these regulations or conditions will subject the exhibitor to a fine of £50, and to the forfeiture, by order of the Show, of any prize to which he may be entitled (in addition to all other consequences attaching to such infringement). The Show reserves to itself the right to inform other Agricultural Associations of such decisions.
 7. Acceptance of the foregoing provisions shall be condition of entry. Please note that CCTV is in operation.

HEALTH AND SAFETY REGULATIONS

8. Exhibitors are reminded that they must conform to the requirements of the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and other relevant Health and Safety legislation. Exhibitors must also comply to The Disability and Discrimination Act; the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005; the Health Act 2006 incorporating the Smokefree Legislation.
9. Smoking is prohibited in the Stock lines and all Buildings. Environmental Health Officers and Trading Standard Officers will be in attendance at the Show and have the authority to prosecute as appropriate.
10. No oil, cooking stove or barbecue of any description must be lit in the Stock Lines and anyone found offending, will be dealt with in accordance with Regulation 6.
11. All electrical equipment being used on the showground must have a current Safety Test Certificate.
12. Iphone/ipod and other appliance chargers must not be left plugged in and charging in sleeping accommodation or cattle lines unattended.
13. All Gas appliances coming onto site must be covered by a gas safety record carried out by a Gas Safe Registered Engineer.
14. Designated clipping points must be used. The use of electrical appliances with long leads which traverse the floor of the building is prohibited. Extension leads may only be used uncoiled.
15. The Cattle lines will be closed to the general public whilst animals are being moved for judging. Wheelchairs or prams will not be allowed in the stock lines at these times.
16. Livestock exhibitors are reminded that the show environment can be upsetting for livestock, even those of normally placid temperament. Livestock with unstable or aggressive temperament should not be brought to the Showground. When in the opinion of the Officers, the Stewards, the Police or the Health & Safety Executive, an animal's behaviour poses an immediate threat to the people in its vicinity the Show reserves the right to take appropriate action to mitigate the threat. The Show, its employees, servants and agents shall stand absolved from any obligation to make good any loss or damage suffered as a consequence of enacting this regulation.
17. USE OF EXTERNAL ELECTRIC GENERATORS ON THE SHOWGROUND OR IN ANY OF THE CAR/LORRY PARKS IS PROHIBITED.

COMPETENCE OF EXHIBITORS

18. All exhibitors must have the physical ability, relevant experience and be competent to handle the animal in their charge at all times. Handlers must be in good health and properly trained in safe work methods (HSE Agricultural Information Sheet 35 Housing and Handling Cattle).

It is a condition of entry that all stock handlers, and especially children, should only handle animals where they have the necessary strength and experience to cope with the said animal. Children must always be under the direct supervision of, and accompanied by, a competent adult.

ANIMAL WELFARE

19. Bath and West Shows Limited expects all exhibitors to observe best practice at all times.

TRANSIT OF ANIMALS

20. From January 2007 Welfare in Transport Regulation (EC) no. 1/2005 will apply. NOTE: It will be an offence to transport any female animal for whom 90% or more of the gestation period has already passed or female animals that have given birth in the previous week.
21. Exhibitors transporting animals over 65kms will require an Animal Transporter Authorisation and as from January 2008 it is a legal requirement to have a Certificate of Competence for transporting animals over 65kms (please check with your local authority).

BIOSECURITY

22. The Show is licensed by DEFRA in accordance with the requirements of the Animal Gatherings England Order 2010. All animals attendants are asked to co-operate by observing the Bio-Security rules. The animal areas should be kept clean and free from faecal contamination. Attendants should wear protective clothing and footwear capable of being disinfected whilst in the animal area. When leaving the animal area, attendants should remove protective clothing, wash their hands and ensure that footwear is clean and disinfected. When Showing or attending Parades, clean white coats or "Breed Uniforms" should be worn and suitable footwear capable of disinfection. (No Trainers)

ENTRIES

23. a) Cattle entries online at www.bathandwest.com.
Showmanship entries using the paper entry form.
- b) Cattle entries must be received in the Entries Office by the closing date. If an animal is entered in more than one class this must be clearly stated.

Showmanship entries to be handed into the Stock Office by 4.30pm on Tuesday 5 October.
- c) Late, E-mailed or Faxed entries will not be accepted.

Condition of entry is that all Exhibitors names and addresses will be printed in the Catalogue
- d) Individual cattle entries, pair entries and group entries must be received in the Entries Office not later than 20 September together with the correct fee.
- e) An animal may be substituted for any other in the same class only. Full written details of all such substitutions must then be received not later than 30 September. Substitutions will not appear in the catalogue.
- f) Every Exhibitor or Competitor is requested to examine carefully the list of Prizes and Conditions, as he/she will be held responsible for the correctness of his/her Certificate of Entry. An Exhibitor omitting to give information asked for on the entry form with regard to age, breeder, name, sire, etc. of an animal, will be liable to have his/her entry disqualified.
- g) If an Exhibitor or Competitor fails, when called upon by the Stewards or Show Officials, to prove the correctness of his/her Certificate of Entry to their satisfaction, the Entry may be disqualified and any award made to it cancelled.

COWS CALVING AT SHOW

24. Where an animal calves prematurely or aborts it must be returned home together with all other show animals from the same registered premises immediately after a full range of samples has been taken (subject to regulation 19).

CALF CLASSES

25. The General Conditions and Regulations of the Show apply to this section.

The Entry Fee of £10.00 inc VAT per animal will be refunded if cancellation of the entry is received by 27 September. Please notify the Office if you are not bringing cattle to the show.

For the Calf Classes, exhibitors must state on the entry form the name and date of birth of each animal.

All persons entering the Showmanship classes must state their date of birth on the entry form. Entries to be made in the Stock Office by 4:30pm on Tuesday 5 October.

Should the number of entries warrant, the Show reserves the right to split classes within the Showmanship and/or Calf sections as appropriate.

TB PRE MOVEMENT TESTING

26. ALL Cattle coming to the Show must have had a pre movement test with a negative result within 60 days of the commencement of the Show.

Calves must be under 42 days of age when leaving the showground to be exempt from pre-movement testing.

BREED SOCIETY QUALIFICATIONS

27. All cattle must comply with the qualification standards laid down by the respective Breed Societies, as shown under the classification for these Breeds. Milk Record and Qualification Certificates must be available for examination at the Show, if required, and exhibitors must certify on their entry forms that their entries qualify in accordance with these conditions.

HERD BOOKS

28. Every animal entered for competition must be entered or certified as eligible to be entered in the Herd Book of its Breed, or Grading Register, except where otherwise stated at the top of the breed classification. All cattle must be ear tagged in accordance with BCMS and ear tags must be clearly legible. Where an animal is entered by the exhibitor as eligible for entry in the Herd Book of its Breed, proof of such eligibility must be given on the entry form. Exhibitors with animals entered in more than one herd book must stipulate at the time of entry, in which breed they wish to exhibit. All Cattle must be wholly or partly owned by the person in whose name the entries are made.

NB. Any animal exhibited in a breed can only be eligible to be shown in that same breed in any subsequent Dairy Show. There will be no transferring allowed, or refunds where entries are incorrect.

FEES

29. The fees payable for Stock entries are clearly shown in the schedule. Entry Fees will only be refunded in the event of cancellation of Classes, the loss of accredited status, or a DEFRA order prohibiting the exhibition of animals at the Show.
30. No Entry will be accepted unless the fee accompanies it.
31. Where a Prize is offered for a pair of animals, a single Entry Fee is payable.

CANCELLATION OF CLASSES

32. In the event of the entries being less in number than four per class, or the number of different exhibitors in the section being less than three, the Show reserves the right to either cancel classes for that section for the year and return the entry fees or amalgamate with other classes or breeds.
33. In the event of entries in a group class being less in number than two, the class will automatically be cancelled.
34. When, after entry, an animal dies or becomes unfit for exhibition, the Exhibitor will be permitted to substitute another entry in the same class without payment of any further fee upon affording evidence of death or illness and furnishing written particulars of the substituted entry in time for the alteration to be made in the published catalogue.

ANIMALS NOT ENTERED FOR EXHIBITION

35. If any animal is brought into the Showground without having been entered for exhibition, unless prior consent has been obtained from the Show Manager, then pursuant to Regulation 6, the owner shall be liable to a fine of up to £50 and to the forfeiture of any prize awarded to him or her.

ROSETTES

36. No animal shall be decorated with colours other than rosettes awarded at the current Show.

PLACARDS

37. No person will be allowed to fix any placard, or take down any placard in the Showground, without permission of the Stewards.

STALLING OF STOCK

38. The Show, its Officers and Servants, will not be liable for any errors that may happen in placing or stalling the stock or articles to be exhibited. The attendants must ensure they are placed and stalled according to their entries. The Show reserves the right to limit the number of stalls per exhibitor per breed.

The movement of stall positions without the Chief Cattle Steward's consent can lead to disqualification. Exhibitors should note that positions are recorded.

FODDER

39. a) Straw. The Show will provide the initial bedding for all stock; subsequent straw from big bales will be available in the lines each morning.
- b) Green Fodder and Hay will not be available.

RECEPTION OF ANIMALS

40. a) The Showground will be open for the reception of cattle as follows:
Tuesday 9:00am to 5:00pm
- b) All cattle must enter the Showground via Stock Gate.
- c) Cattle not in the Showground by the stated times will be liable to be refused entry.

DEPARTURE OF ANIMALS

41. For Health and Safety and Bio-Security reasons animals will only be allowed to depart after 5:00pm on Show Day.

REMOVAL OF ANIMALS

42. No animal can be removed from its place in the Showground except at the time stated in this schedule.

LICENSING AND DOCUMENTATION.

43. All animals will be examined by a Veterinary Surgeon.

Animals entering the Showground must present BCMS passports at the Veterinary inspection point. This applies to all cattle, including calves, for show or exhibition. The Show will electronically record all movements onto and off the Showground. Barcode labels will be provided for other movements. Exhibitors must ensure that all previous movements are recorded.

All animals entering the Showground must present TB certificates at the Veterinary inspection point, including calves, over 42 days of age.

VETERINARY EXAMINATIONS

44. Where the judges are in doubt, as to age or soundness, or where the Stewards may consider it necessary, the decision of a Veterinary Officer in such cases shall be final and conclusive. Should it be against the animal to which a prize has been awarded, such animals and/or exhibitor shall be disqualified from receiving such prize.
45. Exhibitors shall be liable to pay for all drugs used by the Veterinary Officers in the treatment of their animals. It is a condition of entry that the Veterinary Officers may on their own authority give such emergency treatment as they may consider appropriate in the event that the owner or his representative cannot be found.

ANIMALS RECEIVING TREATMENT

46. The owner of an animal entering the Showground within the withdrawal period of any medication must provide the Veterinary Officer with a written declaration giving full details of the treatment their animal has received.

DISEASED ANIMALS

47. Every exhibitor shall indemnify the Show against all actions, claims, proceedings and demands by any person, company or other representative body of whatsoever nature in respect of any matter, directly or indirectly connected with the bringing onto the Showground of any animal which may have been suffering from any contagious or infectious disease or which develops such a disease whilst on the Showground and in addition the exhibitor shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by the Show in connection with any such claim. The Show's Veterinary Officers are authorised to refuse permission for any animal to be admitted to, or to have removed from, the Showground any animals affected with contagious or infectious disease. The exhibitor of such animal may obtain a certificate from the Show, stating the nature of such disease or infection. Concealment of disease will render the exhibitor liable to disqualification in accordance with Regulation 6.

RINGWORM

48. Exhibitors are specially cautioned not to send to the Show animals which are suffering from Ringworm in any stage. Any animal found to be so affected will, on the certificate of the Veterinary Officers, be disqualified from competition and removed from the Show, and will subject the exhibitor to a fine not exceeding £50 in each case.

MALPRACTICES

49. a) If it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Stewards or Show that an exhibitor or competitor has knowingly signed an incorrect Certificate, or knowingly given an incorrect pedigree of any animal, or brought forward an animal whose ear number does not correspond to that on the entry form, or has attempted to enter any animal or other exhibit or to obtain a prize by any other unfair means at this or any other Agricultural Society's Shows, or is under exclusion from any Breed Society for fraudulent practice, the Show may in its absolute discretion cancel all awards made to such exhibitor or competitor, to disqualify him or her from exhibiting or competing at future Shows of the Company, and to inform other Agricultural Associations of their action in this respect.

b) The Show will not tolerate the administration to exhibits (entered either for competition or sale/demonstration) of tranquillisers or other drugs which may in any way affect the performance of the animals in question to have the effect of making it behave in the Show ring in a manner which is not natural. In addition, no show animal should receive any veterinary medicinal product without an accompanying letter of authorisation from the exhibitor's veterinary surgeon which must be on practice headed paper and include the identification of the animal by ear tag number with the reason for the medication. The show veterinary surgeon reserves the right to refuse to allow the medication or, if this is not accepted by the exhibitor, to exclude the animal from the showground.

The Show reserves the right to take any necessary samples. Any person or exhibitor (or his representative) who is found to have administered or permitted the administration of any such tranquiliser or drugs to any Show exhibit will be reported to Bath & West Shows Ltd and dealt with at their discretion. In addition, the matter will be referred to the appropriate Breed Society or Organisation.

c) Any artificial contrivance or device of any description found on or proved to have been used on an animal at any time whilst that animal is in the Showground, either for preventing the flow of milk or for any other improper purpose, will disqualify that exhibitor from being awarded a prize, and any prize awarded to that exhibitor at the show prior to discovery will be forfeited. The Owner of the said animal may be prohibited from again entering Stock for any of the Company's Shows, for such period as the Company may see fit. For the purpose of this Regulation, the term "improper practice" shall be held to include setting of teats, and generally any other practice which results in the animals being shown other than in a natural state, and the Show reserves the right to have all animals inspected at any time once on the showground, either prior to, during, or after judging. In addition, to ensure there is compliance with this rule, any Dairy Breed Champion is liable to be routinely inspected by the Show's Veterinary Officers, immediately after judging.

OBJECTIONS

50. Any Exhibitor wishing to lodge an objection, having reference to Livestock exhibited at this Show, must make the same in writing on a form to be obtained from the Stock Office, and deposit the sum of £50. If, on investigation, the objection is not sustained to the satisfaction of the Organising Committee, the sum thus deposited shall, at the discretion of the Committee, be forfeited to the funds of the Show. All objections must be delivered at the Stock Office in the Showground on the day on which the award is made, and no objection will be SUBSEQUENTLY received, unless a reason, satisfactory to the Committee be assigned for the delay.

51. The Disqualifying Committee will consider such objections at a time and place to be fixed by them, at which time and place any person making an objection must attend or be represented by his/her authorised agent. The decision of the Disqualifying Committee shall be final.

ADJUDICATION OF PRIZES

JUDGES

52. If, for any reason, a judge is unable to attend the Show or is more than 30 minutes late, the Show reserves the right to appoint a replacement. Every effort will be made to inform exhibitors of the change.

53. The judges are instructed as follows:

a) NOT TO AWARD ANY PRIZE OR COMMENDATION TO ANY ANIMAL WHICH CONTRAVENES THE WELFARE REGULATIONS.

c) To draw the attention of the Stewards to any exhibit that has been improperly prepared for exhibition or is wrongly entered.

d) If a judge has presented before him an animal which he has bred, owned or had an interest in he/she shall place all the other animals in the class and call in the Show's referee to place the animal in question.

- e) To award in every class, in addition to the prize money, Award Rosettes at the Judge's discretion providing the exhibit is of sufficient merit.
- f) In no case, shall a prize be awarded unless the Judge deems the entry to have sufficient merit, and should the Judges consider the exhibits unworthy of the highest prizes offered, it shall be in their power to award a lower prize.
- g) To award one Reserve number for each Championship and Special Award indicating the second best exhibit in case the exhibit to which the prize has been awarded should be disqualified.
- h) Immediately after judging each class, to sign the Judges award sheet, noting any disqualifications.

AWARDS

54. Only the signed awards of the Judges are accepted by the Show as evidence that a prize has been awarded, and the production of the prize card or the rosette by an exhibitor will not entitle him/her to the prize. The Show reserves to itself the right to withhold any prize, if in the opinion of the Stewards, the conditions and regulations have not been properly complied with, or if, in the opinion of the Judges, there is insufficient merit.

Should the panel of judges produce a tie situation in the Supreme Championship, the number of 10's awarded will be taken into account to determine the winner. Should a tie still remain, then the number of 9's awarded will be taken into account and so on until a winner is identified.

REFEREE

55. Should any question arise upon which the Judges may desire a further opinion, the Stewards shall provide them with a Referee.

PAYMENT OF PRIZES

56. Prize money will be paid by BACS after the Show (and, if required, after any further qualification of an animal).

HEADBOARD

57. Exhibitors will be permitted to erect Herd Signs above their animals, but these must not exceed 1m high.

SECURING OF CATTLE

58. All cattle must be properly secured to the satisfaction of the Officers of the Show on being brought to the gate of the Showground, or they will not be admitted.

All cattle must be halter-led whilst in the Showground. Stock attendants are responsible for their own Cattle at all times.

No cattle will be allowed into the Judging Rings unless entered in the class being judged at that time.

INTERPRETATION OF REGULATIONS

59. The Show reserves to itself the sole and absolute right to interpret these or any other prescribed conditions and regulations, or Prize Sheets, and to settle arbitrarily and determine all matters, questions or difference in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with or incident to the Show. Also to refuse and to cancel any entries, disqualify exhibitors, prohibit exhibition of entries, vary or cancel awards of prizes or reserve numbers, and relax conditions, as the Show may deem expedient.
